How to check in on someone

Helping others and providing support can make a difference for someone who is having problems and going through a tough time. If you think someone you care about isn't going so well, try the following tips on how to support them and continue to check in on them.

Talk

For most people, just asking if they are okay and listening can make a difference.

By simply being there for someone, they can feel less alone and more supported to open up and talk about how they are really feeling.

Asking open ended questions that require a response is a good way to start the conversation.

FOR EXAMPLE:

- How are you going? What's been happening in your life lately?
- You don't seem quite yourself lately, is something bothering you?
- You seem upset or worried, what's going on? Can I help with something?
- I've noticed you're not going out much lately, anything going on?

Listen

Just being there for someone and offering a listening ear can make a difference.

1. Show them that you care and are here to listen to them.
2. Have patience, let others talk and don't judge.
3. Be reflective by repeating what they have said.
4. Keep calm and accept that they may disagree with you.

Provide support

If the person you're concerned about is in a life threatening situation, or is at risk of harm to themselves or others, call 000.

Getting help early can make a difference. A good place to start is:

- Talk to your GP or someone you trust.
- Call a support line.
- Contact a support service.
- Try the Think Mental Health check-up tool.

They may also need your support while they look for professional help.

Do an activity together

Activities create conversation. Find an opportunity during everyday life activities to start the conversation and ask them how they are really feeling. Try doing activities together such as:

GOING FOR A WALK

GOING TO AN EVENT TOGETHER

GOING FOR A COFFEE OR A MEAL

KICKING THE FOOTY, PLAYING A GAME, SURFING ETC

GOING FOR A DRIVE

ANYTHING THAT ENCOURAGES OR PROVIDES AN OPPORTUNITY TO HAVE A CHAT

Pioneers of Yilgarn

Stage 1.

Citizens who built this district between years 1887 and 1914

McMahon, Tom: Came to Southern Cross to help his Uncle Owen run the farm and cordial works. He was a great sportsman and boxer.

He was also an outstanding horse trainer and jockey. Tom served with distinction in the First World War, afterwards owning several businesses in Southern Cross.

He went on to become Yilgarn Road Board secretary for many years, and in retirement wrote the history of this district in 'Wish upon a Star.' His legacy lives on through his penmanship.

Know someone who has cancer?

Sadly, most of us know someone that has been touched by cancer, whether it be personally, a family member, a friend or even a neighbour.

At Comfort Quilts Against Cancer, we send a 'hug' in a parcel made by our network of volunteers, who work tirelessly to create something beautiful to bring comfort, love and support to those going through a tough time in their lives.

"Piece by piece we aim to make an impact."

Each care package is made up of a beautifully handmade lap-quilt, with a hand-knitted beanie and scarf for women, and a beanie for men and children, all wrapped in a ribbon.

These anonymous packages are sent directly to the nominated person and there are no limits on gender, age, or the location of the recipient, we deliver anywhere within Australia free of charge.

One of our many testimonials;

"I just wanted to send a message to say I received my quilt today, and honestly it brought me to tears.

I've been struggling the past few days with my treatment and it was just the pick me up I needed."

If you would like to nominate someone you know, or make a donation to help us continue our Mission, please scan the QR code, or go to our website www.comfortquilts.org.au

Comfort Quilts Against Cancer Inc. is a registered not-for-profit charity.
