Facts About Your Rates

How a boom can affect rates

During a boom, Councils increase employee wages to retain staff in a competitive jobs market, increasing budget requirements, which is to be recovered through rates.

How other charges affect rates

Services Councils pay for, such as street lighting, are often subject to price increases. These costs are passed on to councils which increases budget requirements, which in turn increases rates.

Home improvements can affect rates

If the comparative value of your home increases through renovations or an extension, the share of Council budget you pay in rates may increase.

Housing market movements do not affect rates

General changes in the Western Australian housing market have no impact on your comparative share of rates, due to all properties being affected.

Property rental values are independently set

The State's Valuer General sets values used to calculate individual rates according to the Gross Rental Value (GRV) a property could raise if rented. In many country areas, unimproved values (UV) are used according to land value.

How new Council projects affect rates

Councils strive to meet community requests for new facilities such as recreation centres, increasing Council budget requirements, which will be recovered through rates.

How costs of services affect rates

Did you know your rates may also pay for Council security vehicles, seniors programs, disability access and inclusion programs, rangers, community events, waste services and health inspections?

How community facilities affect rates

The local community determines priorities for services and facilities, which impact upon Council budget requirements, which in turn, increases rates.

Stage 1.

Citizens who built this district between years 1887 and 1914

Snook, Frank: Came to Southern Cross in the late 1890's, and bought a carpentry and undertaking business.

Some of his work still stands, being part of Metzke's shop, one half of the two-story alongside Westpac, and the Palace Hotel.

Afterwards, Snook took on the license of the Southern Cross Hotel and then the Exchange Hotel. He made enough out of alcohol to take a holiday for 9 months in Ireland. On his return he pulled down the Exchange and built the present day Palace Hotel.

He also found time to serve on the Municipality and was elected mayor on three occasions. In his younger days he was captain of Fremantle football club.

MEDIA RELEASE

The SEGRA Foundation is calling on WA's not-for-profit sector to come together for a one-of-a-kind event, the Not-For-Profit Success in the Bush Forum 2025, to be held on Friday, 17 October 2025 at Beaumonde On the Point, Perth.

Consistent challenges in finding and keeping volunteers as well as operational funding have been shared with the SEGRA Foundation over the past year.

Not-for-profits (NFP) in rural communities provide services such as health care, childcare, sport and recreation, tourism services and more – all essential contributors to their communities attractiveness and vitality.

The full-day forum will bring together community leaders, board members, volunteers, and NFP staff from across regional WA to share real stories, practical strategies, and innovative solutions that have made a tangible difference in rural communities.

“Regional not-for-profits face unique challenges, particularly in small rural towns, but are led by passionate volunteers and committed boards,” says Caroline Robinson, Director of the SEGRA Foundation. “This forum is designed to highlight those stories and provide tools and connections to help other rural clubs and associations succeed.”

The forum program features an impressive line-up of sessions, including The National Rural Volunteering Roadmap with Professor Kirsten Holmes (UWA) and The Benefits of AI for NFPs presented by Dimity Smith from GroRural.

Attendees will learn from case studies on saving the country pub, with real stories from Darkan, Mogumber, and Ongerup; as well as insights on streamlining sports governance in small populations. Funding and sustainability take centre stage in the Where's the Money? session, while the interactive Where Are All the Volunteers? workshop tackles one of the sector's biggest challenges – people.

The program also explores the value of community foundations with Dylan Smith and concludes with a Community Foundations Panel featuring leaders shaping the future of regional funding initiatives through community foundations that invest back into the people and infrastructure of their communities.
