Can you host a couple of medical students for three nights?

Wheatbelt Medical Student Immersion Program

TUESDAY 16 TO FRIDAY 19 MARCH 2027

Share what living in the Wheatbelt is like with doctors of the future

One hundred medical students will be coming to the Wheatbelt in March 2027.

During their stay, they will visit local farms, industry, general practices, hospitals and schools, and participate in community activities.

We need you to provide real-life experiences that will give them an understanding of what it is like to live in the Wheatbelt and perhaps inspire them to become rural doctors.

The students will visit the following towns:

- Bruce Rock
- Cunderdin
- Kellerberrin
- Merredin
- Narrogin
- Southern Cross
- Tammin
- Westonia

As a host, we will ask you to provide accommodation for two or three students, to assist with transporting them to/from town, and share what it is like to live in your town with the students. You are invited to come along to a Thank You Dinner with the students on the Thursday night.

Why host?

This is a life-changing experience for the students, with many having no previous exposure to rural life or the Wheatbelt.

By providing these rural immersion opportunities early in their degree, it has been proven that students are:

- more likely to explore rural career opportunities; and
- better able to provide patient-centred care to rural people.

Some students previously hosted through this program continue to keep in touch and visit their host families. Some have returned for seasonal work or placements, while others have joined mentoring programs. The experience has inspired some host family members to pursue tertiary studies in health and medicine. Many former students now practise as doctors in the Wheatbelt and other parts of remote WA and Australia.

For further information, contact Rural Health West:

T 08 6389 4509

E futureworkforce@ruralhealthwest.com.au

We want to hear from you if you would like to host, even if you need the students to roll out a swag in the living room.

The editor attempts to heal the wounds with Stacey:

> ….Mr Stacey left for two months holiday on Thursday evening. Jack has been in the employ of the Council for five years and in fairness he has only had one week's holiday in that time. He has been a painstakingly and useful servant to the ratepayers. Still for the work he has done he has been well paid. In unanimously granting Stacey two month's holiday on full pay the mayor and councillors demonstrate their unfitness for the positions they hold. The ratepayers are already overtaxed and further increases are expected. The Municipal balance sheet shows a deplorable state of affairs.'

Despite the editor's opinion, Council held Stacey in high regard and gave him a glowing report a year earlier which was printed by the 'Times.' Stacey worked for the Council for many years, having come to Southern Cross in late 1895.

McIntyre then turns his attention to a fresh target:

> ….The recently created Children's Department has closed down several 'lying in homes' in Southern Cross used by women from outlying areas in the final stages of their confinement, despite the fact the District Medical Officer reported them as suitable for the purpose in which they were used. Certainly the buildings were not as elaborate as those in Perth but the homes were conducted skilfully and hygienically. But they did not come up to the high standard required; consequently these homes have been closed by a silly ass who knows nothing about local conditions. If there were a shadow of suspicion upon either of these homes that have been refused a licence we would be the first to advocate their closure, but there is not. The women who run them are all of high character and the homes are good enough to meet the present requirements of the district. Now a meddling lot of politicians who know nothing and care less about mothers and children of the goldfields, are smitten with the idea that a new department is necessary. In future women from the back country will be forced to go to Perth.'
>
> (Private maternity hospitals run by ex-nurses were popular in the early years and several operated in Southern Cross)

Meanwhile the 'Times' is feeling the loss of business caused by its own vindictive pen:

> ….Boxing Day races were an unqualified success. The thermometer stood at 155 in the shade and people who attended the races stood at the refreshment booth. Before the first race started the committee were drunk, the Clerk of Courts was boozed, the stewards were tight, the judge was half-seas over, Sniveller was shellacked, the owners were inebriated, the jockeys were intoxicated, and several Jay Pays were tuned up to fighting pitch.'
> ….Our doom is sealed. The local race committee met in solemn conclave at the Mayors groggery. Francis Herbert Snook sniggered and snivelled as he took the chair, and after the most 'intellectual' discussion resolved to send out of town for all printing the Race Club may need in future. This drastic step was taken because we did not grill ourselves out at the racecourse on Boxing Day watching the antics of drunken men and fifth rate gee gees. We heard and wrote a report about the rorty doings of that day, but our report has given offence to Snivelling Snook and his race committee. Now we are to be placed under taboo, our staff thrown into idleness and our doom sealed. The six quid's worth of printing we have been doing for years will in future go to enrich some foreign firm. Unless we get down low on our bellies and crawl to Snivelling Snook we shall never get another penny out of the Race Club's overdraft. But we are not beaten yet, as we shall kow-tow to the offended ones, lickspittle all over them and regain their good graces by depicting their noble traits and character in this rag. We shall suffer their beery breath, tolerate their unspeakable ignorance, and flatter them in terms we have invented and patented for use in such cases as theirs. If our grovel and slobber does not get us rehabilitated we shall die busted and broken hearted. Then Snivelling Snook can pass a professional opinion on our funeral.'
>
> ….Once again we remind people of Yilgarn that 'Southern Cross Times' is their Home Paper. It chronicles their doings, advertises the minerals and other resources of this locality, advocates their wants, and throws open its columns to men and women for their opinions. It ignores the doings of the outside world and devotes its space to the interests of Yilgarn. We do our best for this field and we want the people to do the best by us. The Southern Cross Times is more often quoted by rival newspapers than any other paper, because it is alive and a vigorous sheet that does not fear or favour anybody or anything. Send along two shillings and two pence and we are confident that you will be more than satisfied at the end of three months that you have had darned good value for your money.'

The Story of Bullant McIntyre will be continued in the next edition of Crosswords.
