Thank you

Hello everyone, I just wanted to take this opportunity to say my piece, I cannot believe it is nearly 5 months since my Father, William Robert Cuffe passed away. I have not felt like putting anything in the Crosswords until now since it is the final issue for the year. Firstly I would like to say a very big thank you to Dr Nwoko, all the Hospital staff and all the St John Ambulance volunteers who took great care in looking after my Dad while he was in hospital. Secondly thank you everyone who sent cards, flowers and passed on their condolences also asking how Mum is doing even now. Thirdly a massive big thanks to everyone who attended Dad's funeral and wake even though it was pouring down with rain, I really did appreciate you all turning up and making the funeral a memorable one, Dad would have been so overwhelmed, so a big thank you.. Also I would like to wish everyone in the Yilgarn to have a very Merry Christmas and have a safe, Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Pioneers of Yilgarn

Stage 1.

Citizens who built this district between years
1887 and 1914

Montgomery, William: Came to Southern Cross during mid 1890's to help his brother run a drapery shop. William was an astute businessman and good citizen who was elected mayor of Southern Cross on four occasions. The town prospered under his leadership.

His biggest critic was McIntyre the newspaper proprietor who criticised him at every opportunity.

William moved to Kalgoorlie in 1906 to run the highly successful Montgomery Bros Emporium, afterwards retiring to Fremantle where he became Lord Mayor.

For his involvement in civic affairs, Montgomery was awarded an OBE.

Warning about tax scams

Tax scams seem to be everywhere at the moment and Scamwatch is warning people not to engage with phone calls or emails they receive threatening arrest or jail over unpaid tax debts.

Reports of these scams have jumped significantly during the past month. The scam is timed to coincide with the cut-off date for people needing to have their tax returns submitted to the Australian Tax Office.

Most of these scams occur over the phone. People get a call from an aggressive scammer directly or receive a robotic-sounding voice message informing them they need to contact a phone number in relation to an outstanding tax debt, or face imminent arrest and jail time.

The scammer pretends to be from the Australian Tax Office or the police to scare people into believing the contact is real. They will tell people to buy gift cards like iTunes or Google Play to 'pay' the tax debt or a fine. They may also get people to send money by other methods like Bitcoin ATMs or pre-paid credit cards.

This is a scam. The tax office will never threaten you with arrest, or demand immediate payment of a tax debt or fine with unusual payment methods like gift cards or Bitcoin.

If you ever get a call or email claiming you will be arrested due to a tax debt, simply hang up the phone or delete the email. Do not call the number provided in the phone message or email you receive.

If you're concerned the contact may be legitimate, you can also call the ATO on 1800 008 540 to check its veracity.

You can also report the scam at www.scamwatch.gov.au/report-a-scam.
