Thank you

Thank You!!

Hello everyone, sorry it has taken me so long to say my piece, I haven't felt like putting anything in the Crosswords until now.

It has been 3 months since my Mum, Ellen Alice Cuffe passed away and we miss her very much. Anyway, I would like to thank my brother, Andrew, and 2 children, Colin and Kayla, for helping take care of Mum since November 2017 until she was ready to go into hospital.

A special thanks go to Dr Nwoko, all hospital staff and St John Ambulance volunteers for taking great care of Mum.

Thanks to everyone who passed on their condolences, sent cards and attended Mum's funeral, even though it was a really hot day, and attended her wake, including the Club Hotel staff for putting on a lovely spread.

We appreciate everyone for turning up, especially Toni and Mark McKenzie for taking such great care of Mum before and after her passing away and making sure everything went as planned at her funeral. She would have loved everything that happened. Also a massive thank you goes out to my Auntie Flo (Mum's sister) and cousin Marilyn plus our good friends Glenn and Ann Williamson who travelled from Perth to attend...

Many Thanks Everyone,
From Andrew, Ursula, Colin and Kayla Cuffe

Stage 1.

Citizens who built this district between years 1887

Presentation Sisters of the Sacred Heart: Five sisters came to Southern Cross from NSW in February 1900 to establish a branch of their order, and to take over teaching at the Convent School.

Their names were Sisters Tracey, Jones, O'Dowling, O'Halloran, and Moynihan. The children blossomed under the sisters who lived in atrocious conditions with limited money. Their heavy black habits totally unsuited to Southern Cross.

They survived by giving music and elocution and painting lessons to those who could afford to pay. Their accommodation leaked when it rained and windows refused to open in summer. Five sisters were crammed into two small rooms. Lack of water was a problem and bathing a forgotten luxury.

The sisters remained for four years before a falling out between the Catholic and the Benedictine orders led to the sisters being moved to Cottesloe at the end of 1904.

Priestly, Arthur: A champion athlete who came to Southern Cross in 1901 from Victoria. He worked on the mines.

As well as a champion bike rider, he was also a handy footballer. Over any distance he won cycle events ridiculously easily. Sporting events were popular in the goldfields and the only break from either working or sleeping, a diversion from normal hum-drum life.

Priestley went farming in the Merredin district and later was appointed manager of the State Farm. His sons also took up cycling and were recognised amongst the State's leading riders.

Avoid lemons on car auction websites

Buying a vehicle via online auction has left a WA consumer with a sour taste in her mouth after the car turned out to be a lemon.

The woman, who told her story on TV recently, bid $6,000 because the SUV had only done 135,000km and seemed like a bargain.

But when she drove it away after purchase, it broke down almost immediately and a quote to repair it was $6,000 for a new transmission.

In 2018 Consumer Protection received 20 complaints about cars bought at auction.

Auction websites selling cars are generally agents for private owners. There's no statutory warranty under the Motor Vehicle Dealer's Act and consumer guarantees under the Australian Consumer Law, such as acceptable quality and fit for purpose, don't apply either. This is because it is a private seller selling the vehicle.

Terms and conditions on auction sites usually stipulate that the vehicle is "sold as seen". In the case of the woman with the $6,000 lemon, the T&Cs went so far as to say their description was a guide based on a walk around inspection and start-up only AND recommended a full inspection to identify any unsighted damage or issues. Consumer Protection recommends taking a mechanic to inspect and we say do NOT buy sight unseen. Once you take the car away, if there's a mechanical failure you wear the cost of repair.

Although there is no legal requirement for the auction seller to disclose the condition of a vehicle, they cannot make false or misleading representations. For example it's not OK to say "top condition, no mechanical faults" as part of the sales blurb – in those circumstances if there was a fault, you could have some comeback.

Before you buy a car, research make and model reviews and check the Personal Properties Security Register (www.ppsr.gov.au) to ensure no money is owing on the vehicle.

Head to www.consumerprotection.wa.gov.au for more tips.

Because there's currently no cooling off period on car sales in WA, speak to us about any concerns or uncertainty before clicking to agree to a purchase or putting pen to paper. You can get through to the Automotive branch via our contact centre on 1300 30 40 54.
